

Bradway bus ticket guide from 2 January 2023

Bradway is currently served by just one regular bus route, service 25 operated by Stagecoach Yorkshire. This departs from the Old Mother Redcap terminus on the junction of Prospect Road and Everard Avenue then proceeds via Bradway Road and goes to Woodhouse via Lowedges, Meadowhead, Woodseats, Heeley, Sheffield City Centre and Manor Park Centre. There is also a 725 school bus which goes to Meadowhead School directly via Greenhill Parkway.

It does however operate as part of a wider network and a range of tickets are available, this guide should help you choose the best value option for your needs. Timetables and network maps are available online from travelsouthyorkshire.com.

Single tickets

For one off bus rides you can just buy a single journey ticket from the bus driver. Cash or contactless payment is accepted. Until March 2023 there is a government funded scheme which caps the single fare to a maximum of £2. Young people aged under 21 can apply for a Zoom or Zoom Beyond pass from travelsouthyorkshire.com which reduces the fare to 80p a ride.

Short distance single	for short journeys within Bradway or to Lowedges terminus shops	£1.50	To check which single fare applies to your journey use the itinerary planner on the
Maximum single fare	for all other journeys	£2.00	Stagecoach app or online at stagecoachbus.com

Day tickets

Offer unlimited travel on the day of purchase/activation within a specific area. If you are making more than a simple out and back return journey then an all day pass is likely to be the best value choice. You can buy most tickets from the bus driver, all are available on the Stagecoach app. Child ticket are available to those under 18s with a TSY Zoom pass. Flexi5 is a discounted bundle of 5 tickets for regular users that don't commute every day (you have a month to use all 5). Group tickets are valid for up to 5 passengers of any age travelling together.
